

Associate of Science in Art

Concentration: Commercial Art

This two-year program is designed to prepare students to make rapid application of their skills. The students concentrate on creating posters, banners, murals, and other publicity-type productions. Designs and layouts for books, magazines, advertisements, and other printed materials are studied in a practical manner to produce camera-ready art for printing.

Major Requirements:

AR 101 Basic Design 2D	3 hours
AR 102 Basic Design 3D	3 hours
AR 111 Fundamentals of Drawing	3 hours
AR 141 Fundamentals of Photography	3 hours
AR 204 Desktop Publishing for Graphic Design	3 hours
AR 217 Art Appreciation*	3 hours
AR 315 Visual Media Design	3 hours
AR 235 Digital Design Imaging	3 hours
AR 321 Advanced Drawing	3 hours
AR Electives (must be upper division)	6 hours
Total	33 hours

*AR 217 also fulfills 3 hours for general education humanities credit