Jeanne Lai Hing began her service at Oakwood in 1989. In 1996, she received her bachelor’s degree in Organizational Management from Oakwood University, and she went on to earn a Master’s degree in Management from the Florida Institute of Technology in 2001. For several years, she managed Title III funds for the Academic Affairs Division and played a key role in the annual planning and organization of the graduation services. While working in the Academic Affairs Office, she was also a part-time instructor teaching for the Center for Academic Success (CAS) and Business and Information Systems Department.

Mrs. Lai Hing enjoys working with the students, visiting the sick, and working for the Sabbath School department at her church. She is a member of the American Management Association and the Association for Business Communication.

Research Interest:
The impact of ethics on communication in the workplace