Mission Statement

Oakwood University, a historically Black Seventh-day Adventist institution of higher learning, provides quality Christian education that emphasizes academic excellence; promotes harmonious development of mind, body, and spirit; and prepares leaders in service for God and humanity.

OUR RESPONSIBILITIES

Oakwood University employees believe:

We are responsible first to God, our Creator. Individual and collective action must reflect His character and exhibit His love.

We are responsible to the communities in which we work and live and also to the world community. We accept the challenge to be exemplary individuals and corporate citizens.

We support good works and charities. We encourage civic improvements, a better quality of life, security, health, and education for all.

We are responsible to our fellow church members. We accept accountability for sound leadership decisions and appropriate stewardship.

We are responsible to each other within the office complex. Every individual deserves to be treated with dignity and respect; to have his or her role and contribution valued and affirmed; to function in a safe working environment; to experience an atmosphere of challenge, open communication, and contentment.

OUR VALUES

We value the Bible as the primary reference for life’s direction and qualities.

We value excellence in all that we do.

We value ethical and moral conduct at all times and in all relationships.

We value creativity, and innovation in the completion of our mission.

We value honesty, integrity, and courage as the foundation of all our actions.

We value the trust placed in us by colleagues and by the world Church membership.

We value people as children of God and therefore brothers and sisters of one family.

ETHICAL RESPONSIBILITIES AS EMPLOYER AND CORPORATE CITIZEN

In pursuit of its mission, and while maintaining its responsibilities and adhering to its values, Oakwood University operates under the following ethical guidelines:

Equal opportunity employment. Within the purview of laws permitting church membership as a condition of employment, Oakwood University will follow procedures to ensure equal opportunity of employment, remuneration, and advancement on the basis of job qualifications and performance.

Equity, fairness and non-discrimination. Oakwood University will treat all individuals and groups with loving justice. It will not practice or condone discrimination with regard to race, national origin, gender, age, marital status, veteran status, or disability that does not prohibit performance of essential job functions.

Compliance with laws of the land. Oakwood University will carry on its activities in compliance with the laws of the land provided these are not in contradiction to God’s expressed will.

Loyalty and fulfillment of contractual obligations. Oakwood University will fulfill the commitments it has entered into through authorized channels. Where misunderstandings arise regarding such commitments, Oakwood University shall participate, with the parties concerned, in conflict resolution procedures within the organization before seeking the help of the wider community.

Atmosphere of safety and happiness. Oakwood University is committed to providing a work environment that offers physical safety and security. It also strives to encourage and promote genuine happiness through the realization that every employee is valuable and every task, no matter how routine or unnoticed, is a service to God. Oakwood University will continue to integrate worship, work, and celebration in a way that acknowledges wholeness in life and relationships.

Respect for human dignity and individuality. Oakwood University affirms and respects the uniqueness of every employee. It recognizes that a person’s value surpasses the worth of his or her contribution to the organization. It believes that communal harmony and corporate objectives are enhanced rather than compromised by the broad mosaic of personalities, talent, skills and viewpoints dedicated to the honor of Jesus Christ. Oakwood University shall strive for communication that is timely, truthful, open, candid, and kind.

ETHICAL RESPONSIBILITIES AS EMPLOYEES

We recognize that employment in the Seventh-day Adventist Church implies commitment to the organization’s mission and concurrence with its responsibilities and values. We affirm that the employer-employee relationship grows within reciprocity of mutual regard. Our reasonable service as employees includes the following ethical responsibilities:

Live consistent with church message and mission. While in the employ of Oakwood University, we will live in a manner consistent with the beliefs and values of the Church. We will uphold, in word and conduct, the teaching and principles held and advanced by the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Respect for Church-owned assets. We will respect the property of our organization, including any intellectual property that is developed in the course of our employment. We will use the property, facilities, and resources solely for the benefit of our organization, unless otherwise permitted or when financial compensation for such has been arranged.

Respect for colleagues. We will respect and uplift our fellow employees. We will refrain from intentionally placing another in a position of embarrassment, disrespect, or harassment. We will avoid all behavior that may be construed as sexually inappropriate. We will honor the privacy and guard the safety of others.

Efficiency and attention on the job. The hours of our employment shall be devoted to the work assignments entrusted to us. We will not use the employer’s time for personal business or the advancement of personal interests unrelated to the work assigned by our supervisors. We will not deprive our employer by entering into other employment or activities which impair our performance for Oakwood University. We will aspire to greater efficiency and the reduction of waste in time, effort, and resources.

Personal integrity in financial matter. We will not engage in theft or embezzlement of any kind including the misuse of expense accounts falsification of time reports or the misapplication of resources for which we are responsible.

Avoiding inappropriate influence. We acknowledge that the giving or receiving of business gifts can easily inject ulterior consideration in our work and employment relationships. Therefore, the use of gifts, payments, or honoraria as incentives or rewards for a particular course of action is unacceptable. We will not offer gifts, favors, payments or other forms of reward directly or indirectly in exchange for a specific gain or action.

Maintaining an ethical environment in the workplace. We accept the obligation of maintaining ethical standards in personal life and in the workplace. We believe it is our personal responsibility to report, through established confidential channels, any behavior that is inappropriate or which undermines the ethical environment in the office complex. We are prepared to be held accountable by our supervisors and peers for professional conduct representing the moral and ethical values of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

June 2010